PRAYER CAMPAIGN

WAGING WAR FOR THE INCREDIBLE
THROUGH PRAYER

1

DAILY PRAYER DIRECTIVES

Sunday, August 1

Father, in the name of Jesus, I pray that the body of Christ will develop a heart of repentance. I pray that repentance will be an act of Godly sorrow and not just words being said from our mouths. I pray that our hearts will be broken before God so that His Word can minister to us. I pray that the body of Christ sees a need for true repentance and not just remorse. I pray that we will turn away from our sins and that we will confess our sins remembering that God is able to forgive us of all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9). Lord, I pray that we keep a heart of repentance as You reveal areas in our lives that we have allowed to keep us from complete obedience to You.

Monday, August 2

Father, in the name of Jesus, I pray that I have a heart of repentance in obedience to the Word of God. I pray that I am not a lukewarm Christian that makes You sick but I am a person on fire for You. I pray that I return back to my first love, Christ (Revelation 2:4). I pray that I remember what lured me away from You and caused me to step back and that I will denounce it boldly and unashamedly before You, Lord. I repent for intentionally sinning against You, God. I pray that I will build up the church and Pastor with the Word of God and encouragement and not destructive words. I repent right now of every idle word that I may have spoken against my church and pastor.

Tuesday, August 3

Father, in the name of Jesus, I pray that I will be honest and real before You holding nothing back from You because You know all things (Daniel 2:22). I pray that I will desire the heart of brokenness that David had, and I ask You to create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit in me (Psalm 51:10). I know that the blood of Jesus can and will wash away any hidden or open sin; therefore, I come boldly before the throne of grace to obtain mercy and find grace to help me in time of need (Hebrews 4:16).

I pray that my testimony of repentance will lead many souls to repentance, and our church will receive a mighty harvest. I pray for a heart to win the lost that they might live in victory and not bondage.

Wednesday, August 4

Father, in the name of Jesus, I ask You to help me get back on track with keeping my focus on You. I will keep my spirit built up in the Word of God by listening during services, listening to CD's or DVDs and meditating through prayer. Help me to remain mindful that the Body is in spiritual warfare and show me how to use my spiritual armor (Ephesians 6:10-17) so I can defeat every one of the enemy's attacks. Holy Spirit, help me keep my eyes and focus on Jesus as Peter did and let me be reminded that Peter only began to sink when he took his eyes off of Jesus. I come against impatience and I trust Your timing as I re-center my life around You.

Thursday, August 5

Father, in the name of Jesus, I will keep my focus on You. I will keep my mind on true things, honest things, just things, pure things, lovely things, and things that are of a good report (Philippians 4:8). I pray the peace that passes all understanding will consume my mind as I think on You (Isaiah 26:3). Lord, show me what You are requiring of me as I read and study Your Word. I will not allow anything to distract me as I take my focus off of myself and put it back on You. I ask You to help me redeem the time that I have lost by putting so much emphasis on everything else but You. I will not look back and declare that You will restore everything that has been taken from me in due season.

Friday, August 6

Father, in the name of Jesus, I pray for a desire to stay open before You through my prayer life. I declare that there is power in praise and worship and in Your presence is the fullness of joy (Psalm 16:11). I will seek after or set my affections on the things above which are the things of God. I will hunger and thirst for righteousness in You and I will find that place beside You. I will protect and guard my place beside Jesus and I will not let anyone or anything uproot me from my secret place with You. I call on the Holy Spirit to help me to be more and more Christ-like in my everyday life. I declare that my relationship with You will draw many men and women to You as I glorify You in my thoughts, my words, and deeds.

Saturday, August 7

Father, in the name of Jesus, I thank You for the strength to be linked to the process and not just the promise. I know that You have all things in control if I will seek a place by You. I declare that You will perfect those things that concern me (Psalm 138:8). I pray that the Holy Spirit will show me how to grow closer to You as I seek my place by You on a daily basis. I do not have to remain distant and I do not have to grow downcast because there is a place by You that will cover me from every storm that I will encounter.

Sunday, August 8

Father, in the name of Jesus, I ask for the wisdom to acknowledge, analyze, and attack my enemies by Your spirit. Holy Spirit, cause me as well as my church family to be skillful in spiritual warfare against all the enemies that are attacking us and causing us to be ensnared by traps of sin, selfishness, and stubbornness instead of submission to the Will of God. I declare that I will not be ignorant of satan's devices (2 Corinthians 2:11), deceptions, derailments, and drama that will cause me to not enter into the promises that You has destined for me to walk in during this year of the Incredible. I thank You for a fresh revival and a renewed passion to seek You like never before.

Monday, August 9

Father, in the name of Jesus, I ask that You show me the exact wiles (methods of destruction) of the enemies against my family (Ephesians 6:11). Holy Spirit, help me to trace any unhealthy choices and unhealthy patterns that have caused me to maintain self destructive behaviors within my family. I declare that husbands and wives will turn away from the seductive spirits of the enemy that are trying to destroy marriages such as extramarital affairs, materialism, pornography, and all other destructive tactics of the enemy. I declare that families will return to spending quality time together for this is pleasing to You. I declare that families will turn away from the "busyness of the world's system" so that the future generations will understand Your Divine Design for family. I declare that husbands and wives will return to spending quality time in prayer and in the Word of God together. I declare that revival will come to our families so that Your will can be done in the earth.

Tuesday, August 10

Father, in the name of Jesus and through the Holy Spirit, reveal to me and my church family the methods of attack against our children. I pray against mental health diseases causing children to be limited by labels. I pray children's hearts will be turned back to their parents in respect and true honor, for this is right in the Your sight. Pray that children will return to loving You more than loving the world. Pray that real revival will occur in the children as they turn back to seeking You more than anything else. Pray for a hunger and thirst for righteousness in children. Pray that they will hate sin and love what is right in Your sight. Speak destruction over every demonic attack against the children. Pray for the ones who have been molested, raped, involved in gangs, involved with the law, who are motherless and fatherless. Pray for restoration in the families—especially in the parent-child relationship. Pray for restored love, restored peace, restored respect, and restored understanding. I pray for revival!

Wednesday, August 11

Lord, I pray for wisdom to recognize that overspending and gathering up debt is a tactic of the devil. Give me a clear revelation that the more debt I have in my life, the more monies are restricted from being used to fund the Kingdom of God. I will promote Your agenda above my own and glorify You in my decisions as it relates to finances. Show me any destructive financial patterns in my life, and Holy Spirit, make me a "wise steward" of the finances that You have given to me. I pray that I will be bold and not fearful in my giving because I walk by faith and not by sight. I declare that the finances of the church will increase daily so we can do more and more ministry each day.

Thursday, August 12

Father, in the name of Jesus, I come against every attack against business owners and the business minded of KCC because we realize that money in our hands means more opportunity to do ministry. I pray that these Kingdom Builders will choose a good name by being people of integrity, and managing their business affairs properly and in a Christ-centered manner. I pray for a "spirit of wisdom" to discern good business deals that are God-ordained and deceptive business deals that have been crafted by the devil. Lord, I come against the enemy as he tries to foster a love of money over a love of righteousness. I thank You that those that have the desire to be rich will see those desires come to past as they seek You first (Matthew 6:33) and acknowledge You in all of their decisions (Proverbs 3:6).

Friday, August 13

Father, in the name of Jesus, I pray for a spirit of boldness to overcome me so every trap that has been set for me by the enemy will be exposed and removed. I plead the blood of Jesus over my life, my family, and my home. Holy Spirit, reveal hindrances and habits that are hindering my faith. I pray for a fresh fire to believe for miraculous healing and deliverance. I pray for family members who have been addicted to drugs, illicit sexual activity, drinking, lying, and backsliding to have a fresh view of You and give their hearts completely to You never to turn away from You again. I come against discord and backbiting and I speak unity in every one of my relationships. Lord, because the enemy hates praise, I will continually praise You and utilize my praise to break out of every prison in which the enemy tries to place me (Acts 16:25).

Saturday, August 14

Lord, I declare that I will not be ignorant of satan's devices and that I will recognize the power of Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 2:11). I pray that I will find my secret place in focus, prayer, and worship and that I will not be blindsided by the enemies' tactics to distract and destroy me. I will not forget the fact that You have cut a covenant with Yourself on my behalf, and that covenant promises salvation, enemies defeated and blessings that will overtake me. I will walk in a greater revelation of anointing, application of the Blood of Christ and appreciation for the resurrecting power of the Lord Jesus Christ. I will not be moved by difficult circumstances and will cut off all excess flesh in my life as I prepare for the promises of God to be manifested in my life this year!

Sunday, August 15

Father, I thank You for the Word that will come forth today, and I thank You that I will receive what You have to say to me through the sermons, songs, and worship experience. Your Word brings light, and I humbly submit to everything that You expose to me as I pursue my relationship with You. I realize that there are new levels that await me and a greater anointing that You want me to possess, and I pray for the patience to remain in the camp while I am healed of every stronghold that You reveal to me. Lord, I believe that Your plans for me are not to harm me but to give me hope and a future, and I will remain by Your side as You help me repair the broken places in my life.

Monday, August 16

Father, I thank You in the name of Jesus that I have and am able to identify every stronghold in my life. I thank You that as I have identified them that I use spiritual weapons to cast them down and out. I pray now God that I am able to comfortably call You LORD in every situation. Therefore, I surrender my own will and I pick up Your will and desire for me. Father, I know that You know what is best for me. Lord, I appreciate a secret place in which You and I can have personal encounters. I thank You now that a desire for a greater level of prayer, praise, power, worship, anointing, giving, and obedience is being created and stirred in me. Create in me a clean heart (mind) and renew a right spirit within me.

Tuesday, August 17

Lord, I know that the enemy is the father of lies and is a part of every false way that contradicts the Word of God. I come against every false way and doctrine in the name of the Lord Jesus. I decree and declare that I will hunger and thirst after righteousness and the Word of God. I have the understanding that with wisdom comes power, and the plans of the enemy are canceled. I take the power and the authority over every area of my life. I declare that the bands of wickedness are loosed as I use spiritual weapons to remove them. Father, help me to recognize that this wrestling match is not against flesh and blood, but that my fight is in the spirit realm (Ephesians 6:12). Father, I decree VICTORY, not only for me but for my entire house and church. I declare that our thinking will catapult us to a new place both spiritually and naturally. Our lives will soar to new heights and deeper depths.

Wednesday, August 18

Today, I pray against every thought that crowds and bombards my mind. I tear down every clever and crafty thought that the enemy throws at me. I decree that I am not ignorant of Satan's devices nor tricks, traps or tools of torment. I declare that I have keen discernment that sniffs out the enemy's location and plans. Father, I declare a transformed mind. My mind will be renewed with Your Word, renewed with Worship, renewed with praise, and renewed through faith. I declare that my mind is continually cleansed from ALL unrighteous thinking. Father, I come against "Stinking Thinking" and realize that even the odor of it can cause my life to decay. I speak into existence the spiritual nutrients that are needed for me to grow and go beyond my thoughts.

Thursday, August 19

Father, I decree in the name of Jesus that I will not be overtaken by strongholds, but that strongholds are beneath me. I decree that I do not even entertain or associate myself with nagging thoughts, doubts, fears, suspicions, wonderings, reasonings, or theories. I declare that Jesus is the way and every other way is a plan for failure. Help me to understand that "whatsoever a man thinketh in his heart, so does he become" (Proverbs 23:7). Build me up where my thinking is broken down; heal where my emotions cause my thoughts to be out of balance. Lord, I declare that negative thoughts will not cause me to live beneath the place that You desires for me. Ignite my fire Lord to seek diligently after You and for ways to properly handle my thought life.

Friday, August 20

Father, the decision has been made; I will no longer be bound by strong holds. I decree that every time a stronghold presents itself, that it will be quickly caught and captured. I decree that every stronghold is weakened and loosed in the name of Jesus. Lord, I thank You that this is not just a season of renewed thinking but it is a lifestyle. I will not let this fire that has been ignited in me to die out or my spiritual ammunition to run out. I thank You, Lord, that the grace to be able to endure is within me. I decree that I am an overcomer. I praise You because when You died on the cross, death was swallowed up in victory and the stinger was snatched out of the grave. Surely, I will not be tormented by strongholds, because VICTORY is already mine. I am a walking, talking, praising, and declaring, overcoming, faith-filled testimony of victory.

Saturday, August 21

Lord, right now I come against any thought or any person that tries to talk me out of the victory that You won for me back on Calvary. I thank You, Holy Spirit, for the discernment to know when someone is speaking life or death into my life, and I choose to only embrace life. I will erase all physical memories, photos, letters, memorabilia, and books that were used to create a stronghold in my life in the first place. Those that You have set free are free indeed and I will not allow anyone or anything to put me back in bondage again. I take my deliverance seriously, and I use my testimony to overcome any temptation that tries to ensnare me (Revelation 12:11).

Sunday, August 22

Father, I declare authority over my mind. My mind is in perfect peace daily because I choose to keep my thoughts on Jesus (Isaiah 26:3). I will think only on those things that are true, honest, just, pure, and lovely and of a good report (Philippians 4:8). I declare that I am not a double-minded person but I am stable in all of my ways because I have chosen God's Word as my road map (James 1:8). I renounce worldly thinking and choose to take on the mind of Christ in all things (Philippians 2:5). Thoughts become things if not interrupted, so today I choose to interrupt any thoughts that do not line up with the Word of God. I have clarity of thought and I am ready to make sound decisions according to my God-given authority. In Jesus Name!

Monday, August 23

Father, I declare authority over my finances. I will remain in obedience to You in financial matters because it is my covenant connection to receiving open window blessings (Malachi 3:10). You delight in the prosperity of Your servant and I declare that I walk in prosperity in this season and seasons to come (Psalm 35:27). You are my source and I will look to no other (Philippians 4:19). I relinquish any control I may have on my finances and I give the Holy Spirit total control. I give You the authority to direct me regarding offerings and other avenues I am to be a blessing to others. I declare that I am Your distribution center of wealth in the earth. I will be more financially savvy and declare that I will grow in greater wisdom daily in financial matters. I commit to giving, budgeting, savings and investing as You lead.

Tuesday, August 24

Father, I take authority over my emotions. I will not allow my emotions to control my life. I commit to responding to difficult situations versus reacting to them. I will make intentional connections to the Holy Spirit daily so that I can remain calm in whatever I face in life. When anger tries to take control me, I will take authority over it and use my weapons of warfare (prayer and praise). As a daily practice, I will use positive forms of communication when addressing others. I realize that everything doesn't require a response but when a response is necessary, it will not be emotionally driven. I am in control of my emotions; they do not control me. (Proverbs 16:32)

Wednesday, August 25

Father, I take authority over my relationships. My relationships are a vital part of my success in the earth, and I will not allow the enemy to have victory in this area. I declare that all of my family connections are blessed and fruitful. I declare that I am walking in the power of agreement in my covenant relationships (Amos 3:3, Matthew 18:19). I declare that I am always walking in love and forgiveness with others. I believe that destiny connections will be made and those that already exist will be strengthened. I declare that You are raising up someone to use their power and influence to help me. If there are any relationships that need to be redefined/cut-off, I thank You for the strength and wisdom to handle them. I will do what it takes to cultivate those relationships that I need and starve those that are harmful to me.

Thursday, August 26

Father, I declare authority over my mouth. There is life and death in the power of my tongue (Proverbs 18:21). So, I choose to speak life. I will not be moved to speak out of faith because of what I see. I call those things that be not as thou they were. My tongue is a tree of life for me and for those around me (Proverbs 15:4). I take authority over my words because You have given me the tongue of the learned, so that I will know how to speak to him that is weary (Isaiah 50:4). You create the fruit of my lips and so Your praise will continually be in my mouth (Psalm 34:1; Isaiah 57:19). If I speak the Word only, then I shall see Your will for my life come to pass.

Friday, August 27

Father, I take authority over my health. I am the healed resisting sickness. Jesus paid the price on the cross for my healing, and I declare in Jesus name that by His stripes I am healed (Isaiah 53:5). I walk in divine healing. I take authority over unhealthy habits. I denounce any negative habits that hinder me from total healing. I will eat healthy, and exercise will no longer be a chore but a part of my lifestyle. The doctor isn't the last word on my health but I use the information given to help me get a better faith perspective. I am not only healed but I am whole (Mark 6:56), not just in my body but mentally and emotionally. I have faith for instantaneous healing but just in case my healing is a process, I have the faith to see my healing manifest no matter how long it takes. I am healed in Jesus Name!

Saturday, August 28

Father, I take authority over the enemy. I walk in my God-given authority to tread over serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of enemy (Luke 10:19). I know that the enemy is the father of lies and I will not allow him to take what You have for me. I know that the joy of the Lord is my strength so devil, you can't have it (Nehemiah 8:10). I know that tithing/giving is a part of my covenant with God; so devil, no bill or financial hardship will keep me from obeying. I know that God has set the solitary in families, so devil you will not keep me from being faithful to church attendance and serving in various ministries (Psalm 68:6). I know that the more I know God, the stronger I am, so devil I will not let you hinder me from studying the Word and spending time with God (Daniel 11:32). I walk in my God-given authority to have dominion over any situation that comes to keep me from the abundant life I am suppose to have (Genesis 1:26; John 10:10).

Sunday, August 29

Father, in the name of Jesus, I declare that I am in my set place at Koinonia Christian Center Church. I will not let offense, criticism, correction, or distractions move me out of the will of God and I will not follow from afar and grow distant (Luke 22:54). I will be committed to the vision and the visionary, and I will use my talents, my resources, and my time to help promote Your Kingdom agenda. I will pray for my church, represent my church, and participate at my church so that the burden of the vision will not have to fall on one person's shoulder.

Monday, August 30

Father, in the name of Jesus, I declare that I am in my set place in my family, and You have called me to be an example of Your love and compassion. My position is not by accident as it was established before the foundations of the Earth (Ephesians 1:4). I am not an accident or a mistake; I am a solution to a generational problem and I submit to be used by You to bring my family and many other families out of perishing predicaments. I will not reject, ignore, resent, or disown my family. Instead, I will restore, ignite, rejoice, and embrace the values, talents, and anointing that You have placed in my family.

Tuesday, August 31

Father, in the name of Jesus, I declare that my heart is set like flint to pursue You and Your Kingdom. Therefore, I use every opportunity to witness and share the love of Christ and provide a godly example to the unsaved and the lost. I understand that as I seek You, You will add all of the other things. Therefore, I will pursue my relationship with You and trust You to add all of the other things that I desire. As I come into my season of prosperity and the Incredible, I will not be moved in pursuing You and pleasing You. I will keep my heart before You at all times, and if there is anything, any person, or any place that I put before You, I will remove them in Jesus' name.
